

Moderator: Deborah Orr, Brownfields Coordinator, Region 5

Speakers: Patrick Burke, Economic Development Manager, City of Moline and Brian Porter, Terracon Consulting

Description: The City of Moline has incorporated sustainable practices in decision-making during the environmental assessment process. Site conditions affecting or supporting green construction and technology and storm water management will be explored. Presenters will examine the use of 3-D mapping of residual contamination and the resulting cost savings.